

Magic welcome

NEWARK MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL Principal Jeff Dixon feigns horror as he is "sawed in half" by magician Ryan Adler, 23, along with Adler's mother, Pamela Adler, during Friday's assembly, the first back-to-school rally since 2000. School Activities Director Jan Breen decided to bring back the event this year as a way to introduce the new principal and the 23 new teachers on campus to cheering students (right).
